Fire Department Has Demonstration

EAST JORDAN'S FIRE FIGHTERS SHOW KNOWLEDGE GAINED

The members of the East Jordan Fire Department have been receiving instruction in fire fighting courses designated to show the volunteers short cuts and instill confidence. Walter Gannon, fire-fighting specialist, was the instructor. His services are provided by the Department of Vocational Education and the University of Michigan Extension Service.

The public was invited Thursday evening, August 18th, at 8 p. m. to witness a demonstration showing how to put out a flaming oil fire with flames shooting from 80 to 100 feet into the air by using a fog nozzle with 150 pounds of pressure in from four to six seconds time, with no chemicals. There were 8 barrels of used oil and 20 gallons of gasoline used. This was the seventh session conducted by Mr. Gannon, with one more to go.

As everything was in readiness for the demonstration a fire alarm was sounded when the firemen reached scene at Dutchman's Bay. They found a weiner roast in progress.

East Jordan has excellent fire equipment and an adequate water supply of two pumps kept running alternately.

E. J. Rotary Club Host To District Governor

The weekly luncheon meeting of E. J. Rotary on Aug. 23rd was devoted entirely to playing host to Mr. Gordon Laughead, Rotary District Governor.

President Ted Malpass called a conference of all committee chairmen at 11 o'clock at which time committee reports were submitted to Governor Laughead who was in charge.

The varying degrees of progress of projects already underway were discussed at length and several new projects were submitted for approval.

Gov. Laughead was also the main luncheon speaker, his topic being vocational service with its many applications to everyday living.

He stressed however its aspect in relation to international peace, student fellowship, and the mitigation of class hatreds. Club members were highly impressed by his sincereity as well as by the message he conveyed and are looking foreward to meeting with him again.

FARM FACTS from your County Agricultural Agent

A. B. A. VACATION

All farmers who are members of the Boyne City Artifical Breeders Assocoation and the Antrim-Charlevoix Breeders Association are being reminded by their Presidents Clayton Healey and John Wieland respectively, of the vacation that will take place this month. There will be no services given from either of the Inseminators, Charles King of Boyne City or Bud Best and Dick Wieland of Ellsworth, from Saturday, August 27 through Wednesday, Sept. 7. All farmers should remember this vacation and not call in order to save disappointment.

Members are also urged by Ed Rebman, County Agr'l Agent to observe the time of calling for service. During week days calls should be made before 10 a. m. or between 5-7 p. m. Members are also reminded that they should call when heat is first observed so that the Inseminator can plan his route and save mileage.

PINE TREES AVAILABLE FOR FALL PLANTINGS

Both the Forestry Department of Michigan State Callege and the Conservation Department of Lansing have announced to Ed Rebman, Co. Agr'l Agent that pine trees will be available for this falls plantings. These pine trees will include red pine and jack pine seedlings, and red pine and white pine transplants. Order blanks and price lists are available from the County Extension Office at Boyne City. Since there is still a shortage of trees, all farmers are urged to place their order as soon as possible if they wish to obtain them for this years planting.

4-H MEMBER TO GO TO STATE SHOW

This show is the climax of the year's 4-H club work. The exhibits which have been chosen as best at county and regional meetings are taken to this show to compete for state honors. Entries come from every county in Michigan.

In addition to the displays of projects, evening programs are planned for the 4-H Club Members and their guests. The public has been issued a cordial invitation to attend the show and programs, free of charge.

Ed Rebman,

"War Babies" Going To School

SHOULD BE WELL PREPARED IN HEALTH MATTERS

"Are your children ready for school—from a health standpoint?" This question, Dr. A. E. Heustis, State Health Commissioner, asked Michigan parents today.

"Michigan's second contingent of "war babies" 110,000 strong, will enter school for the first time this fall. Every one of them should be in the best health possible and should be protected against diptheria, whooping cough, smallpox and lockjaw before he takes his place in the schoolroom," Dr. Heustis advised.

"Many Michigan children received their immunization treatments or booster doses during the statewide immunization campaign in May, but these children who have not had immunization or booster doses should be taken to their physician at once," Dr. Heustis said.

The Michigan Department of Health recommends immunization against diptheria, whooping cough, smallpox, and lockjaw before the child's first birthday, followed by booster doses against diphtheria, whooping cough and lockjaw at three years and booster doses against all four diseases at age five, before the child enters school.

"The new school situation will place added demands on the child's energy and morale. He should be in the best health possible to enjoy and adapt himself to the new situation and to get the most from it," Dr. Heustic pointed out.

"If the child who is to enter school this fall has not had a complete physical examination in the past six months he should be taken to a physician for examination now. Where treatment is recommended, the physician's advice should be followed at once to insure optimum health when school opens.

"The child should get plenty of rest before school opens. He should be protected from unnecessary exposure to disease, but his adjustment to school life will be better if he is allowed to play with other children in his own neighborhood.

"Then one other precaution: Show the child the safest route to school, and take him over it, pointing out any hazards which may exist. Present day protection against communicable disease makes accidents the greatest threat to child life in Michigan," the Health Commissioner said.

Tractors to Blame For Many Accidents

Tractor safety is one of the most important considerations on the farm, say Michigan State College agricultural engineers. Reports of the National Safety Council show that tractors may be involved in nearly 75 percent of all farm machinery accidents.

The main safety rules for operating tractors in the field is just good common sense, the engineers say. You can't afford to gamble with an accident by operating without the power take-off shield in place. Cranking a tractor while in gear is another dangerous way to start a day's work. Excessive speed, and careless operation around ditches will also hurry a trip to the hospital.

Foot of Pennies Campaign for Band

The High School Band of East Jordan last Monday began a "mile of pennies." The purpose of this drive is to obtain enough money to buy new uniforms for the majorettes. The present uniforms are fairly well worn out and need replacing. Members of the band are distributing cards, with a replica of a ruler on them and slots to place the pennies in, to various merchants around town. The Band and Majorettes will deeply appreciate all contributions to the drive.

Health Projects For Coming Year

DISCUSSED BY THE COMMUNITY CHEST HEALTH COMMITTEE

The East Jordan Community Chest Health Committee, composed of Jason Snyder, Thomas Galmore, Mrs. Hugh Gidley, Dr. David Pray, Mrs. Charles Strehl, Jr., and Mrs. Albert Sinclair met with Mrs. Wilbur Robertson, Community Nurse, Tuesday evening, August 23rd.

The committee discussed several health projects for the coming year. It is the desire of this group, that all children in the kindergarten and first grade will receive a bottle of milk each day at school. The details of this program are as yet not complete but it is hoped all necessary plans will be complete by the opening of school.

The condition of our city dump was discussed and what could be done to rid it of the millions of flies and rats which infest it. If everyone will take notice, we have many more flies in the city this year than ever before. The homes in the north end have many more rats and with winter coming on these rodents will migrate to a warmer climate, maybe to your home. Flies and rats are carriers of disease. Flies are believed to be one of the best carriers of Polio. Even though Polio is on the decline we could have it break out in our Community. Not a happy thought is it?

The Health Committee knows that to protect our children this should be cleaned up. Why not make yourself a committee of one to talk to the City Fathers and see if some plan cannot be formulated to rid East Jordan of this Health menace. The Health Committee will make its recommendations. What are yours?

Michigan Mirror

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

Has your home-town attracted new industries since VJ-Day?

Many small town in Michigan have.

Any traveler in Michigan who visits small town is instantly impressed with this fact. Industrial decentralization—that $20 phrase for splitting up of a big business into little business—is putting new payrolls and pep into many Michigan communities of less than 10,000 population.

Even Henry Ford II has conceded that the River Rouge plant, soon to be the stage for another costly and wasteful strike, has become too big to be run efficiently. The snarls of city traffic do not help any, either. City life isn't what it's cracked up to be for both the manufacturer and the worker. Hence the continuing trend of industry into small cities and towns.

A "Michigan Mirror" survey offers these spot examples of Michigan small towns which have attracted new industries since the war:

Gladstone—$80,000 branch plant of the Coleman Canning Company of Coleman, Wisconsin. From 150 to 200 persons will be employed during season.

Allegan—Globe Milling Company, manufacturers of underwear, employing 80 persons for a $3,200 weekly payroll.

Baldwin—Packing Material company, making cartons and mounts for refrigerators and stoves. (Union demands for same wage scale as Detroit and Flint have resulted in plant shutdown at frequent intervals.)

Blissfield— Blissfield Manufacturing Company, employing 33 persons, makes refrigerator units.

St. Ignace—Paul Bunyan Company and Barrett Logging Company, manufacturers of FHA-approved half-log pre-cut or pre-fabricated homes and producers of lumber and logs, kiln dried.

Gaylord—Standard Products Company employes 55 m4en and women with $3,000 weekly payroll. Branch of Standard Products Company of Port Clinton, Ohio. This firm makes door channels for General Motors and other automobile manufacturers.

Clare—Clare Manufacturing Company, home industry which makes carburetor parts for Fort Motors Co. Payroll for 200 to 400 persons.

Cedar Springs—The "Red Flannel Town" has a new industry, Blockcraft, Inc., which moved from Grand Rapids and makes high wooden blocks and toy departments. Payroll for 30 persons.

St. Johns— Sealed Power Corporation with 200 employees makes piston rings. Division of Muskegon plant. Also, Federal-Mogul Corporation, also with 200 workers, a division of a Detroit plant.

Harrisville—A group of businessmen of Harrisville formed the Industrial Development association and bought five acres of land within the city limits. Building was leased to Erb & Marshall of Port Huron, makers of "Kenwood" winter garments. At present 25 women are employed; 50 women will be at work by Jan. 1.

Sturgis—Six new industries furnish employment for 270 persons and $12,150 weekly payroll: Grava-Flow Company, plumbing equipment; Sanitor Company, restroom equipment; Sturgis Carton Company, packing cartons; Sturgis Foundry Company, auto parts; Universal Diesel Company. Diesel engine parts, and M. & R. Dietetic Laboratories, Inc., processed milk foods. M. & R. is branch of Columbus, Ohio, concern. Others are independents.

Newberry—Atlas Plywood Company, employing 120; Flint River Fuel & Lumber Co., employing 40. Both are branch firms.

Bangor—Here is one of the top Michigan small towns in point of industrial progress. Listen to this: Six new industries furnish employment form approximately 500 persons; 150 new homes built during the past 18 months. Municipally owned baseball, softball, football park rebuilt and lighted. Village debt free. Six new business buildings in past two years.

The firms: Standard Coil Products, radio parts manfacturer, branch of Chicago firm; Du-Wel Metal products from Chicago in 1946 employs 80 men; Bangor Plastics, branch of Benton Harbor firm; Howard Engineering Co., from Otsego; Well-Made Garmet Company, feeder branch of Chicago main factory.

If your town is not attracting new industry, we recommend you visit Bangor and see for yourself!

These are a few examples of industrial progress in Michigan small towns.

Other illustrations will appear in the "Michigan Mirror" here next week.

John Beebe Home Damaged by Fire Early Thursday Morning

The home of John Beebe, at the corner of Fourth and North Sts., was extensively damaged by fire around 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning.

Damage by fire was confined to the upper story by the East Jordan Fire Department, the first floor damage being totally due to water. The house was unoccupied at the time. For the past several days the owner, John Beebe and his wife, had been engaged in repairing and painting the interior. John's mother, Mrs. Charles Beebe, holds a life lease on the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Zoulek, whose home adjoins the Beebe place, were awakened by the dense smoke and, upon investigation, found the fire just breaking through the roof, and turned in the alarm.

This house, one of several in East Jordan built after the same hip-roof pattern, contained one of the unique chimney styles that was prevalent among builders of an era past. This chimney, in a distance of approximately three feet, was offset cornerwise half the width of the chimney. This practice is now regarded as a fire hazard and is not indulged in by the builders of today. The chimney, still standing, is defying the laws of gravity and is an interesting sight. There are probably dozens of other such fire hazards hidden away in the attics of East Jordan homes.

In selecting diffusing bowls for your lamps remember that they will cut off some of the light but they will also prevent glare. Select a thin blown glass bowl in preference to a plastic or heavy pressed glass reflector bowl, suggests Jessie Marion, home furnishings specialist at Michigan State College.

WITH THE ANTRIM COUNTY AGR'L AGENT
W. Kirkpatrick, Extension Agent

THE 11th ANNUAL 4-H LIVESTOCK SHOW BEST YET

The 11th Annual Antrim County 4-H Livestock Show held at Craven Park, Bellaire on Wednesday, Aug. 17 was best of all shows held to date. A total of 114 exhibits featured this years show. There were 84 cattle, 15 rabbits, 6 chickens, 3 turkeys, 5 swine, and 1 dog exhibits. It is estimated that about 800 people attended the exhibits during the course of the day.

Nevels Pearson, Assistant State 4-H Club Leader and B. C. Mellencamp, Isabella County Agr'l Agent, were the judges for the days event. Both did an excellent joy throughout the day and were exceptionally attentive to the many boys and girls, being careful to give them many fine points of instruction during the course of the days judging. Both were impressed with the number and quality of exhibits made by the boys and girls in Antrim County and were loud in their praises of the work that the various boys and girls had done and support given the boys and girls through their leaders, parents, and friends.

The Showmanship contest was marked with exceptionally keen competition in both the Junior and Senior events. This years contest featured for the first time, a separate section for Juniors and and another section for Seniors.

Ribbons were given for the first ten placings in each event as well as a trophy, show halter, show blanket, and show brush.

Delbert Carpenter of Ellsworth placed first in the Junior Showmanship contest and will receive the trophy made possible through the Pomona Grange. In addition, he received the show halter. Richard Burfield of Alden placed second and was awarded the show blanket and Don Aardema of Central Lake, a newcomer in 4-H Dairy work, placed third and was awarded the show brush.

In the All Star Softball game played between the two County Softball Leagues, the players of the North Star League beat the Dixie League 13 to 9 in a closely played game throughout.

Extended-Area Phone Service

AREA TO BE CONSOLIDATED SEPT. 10th

The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. has set Saturday, Sept. 10, as the date extended-area telephone service between East Jordan and two of its neighboring communitnes will be inaugurated.

C. L. Johnson, manager, said at exactly 12:01 a. m. that day, the necessary equipment with which to operate the new calling system will be cut into service. No special ceremony has been arranged because of the time element.

Beginning on that day, customers in East Jordan will be able to make unlimited, toll-free calls to Charlevoix and Boyne City. Customers in these two cities may, beginning at the same time also, call East Jordan as often, and talk as long as they wish without paying toll charges.

The calling procedure for customers in all three cities wishing to make calls under the extended-area plan will remain unchanged after the "cutover". They will continue to give the number of the telephone they are calling to their local operators who will complete the call for them.

Michigan Bell's latest up-to-date Charlevoix Directory in this area contains the alphabetical listings of subscribers in East Jordan, Charlevoix, and Boyne City as well as a combined classified section at the back.

Instructions on how to make calls under the extended-area plan will be contained on directory "stickers" to be sent to subscribers before the "cutover" Johnson said. The manager said the gummed stickers are to be attached to the new directory.

When the new service is introduced on Sept. 10, the calling area for East Jordan will extend beyond the 563 telephones in its own exchange to include the 2,240 telephones in the combined exchanges of Boyne City and Charlevoix as well.

At that time, East Jordan's telephone rates would move up to the the Michigan Public Service Commission, supplanting the temporary rates in effect since Oct. 16, 1948.

Charges for the new service will be based on rate schedules previously approved by the Commission, under which the number of telephones that can be reached in the flat rate area determines the schedule of flat monthly rates to be applied.

For example, Johnson said, subscribers of individual residence service would pay monthly charges of $2.75 instead of the $2.25 they now pay, and subscribers to 2-party residence service would pay $2.25 monthly instead of $2.00.

These rates would apply until such time as the Commission issues an order on the application for higher rates which the company filed last December.

Find Mixed Flocks To Have More T. B. Than All Pullets

Selling the old laying flock in the fall is a good way to help control avian tuberculousis in the pullet flock and also in the swine herd.

Recent research in Illinois has shown that mixed flocks of old and young chickens have more tuberculosis than young flocks. No flocks in 48 all-pullet flocks had tuberculosis, while 22 of 53 mixed flocks had the disease.

According to Dr. Ralph Belding, poultry pathologist at Michigan State College, tuberculosis control of the flock is important. The disease lowers the birds' vitality, makes them more susceptible to other diseases and increases death losses.

Adopting an all-pullet flock program will also help control tuberculosis in swine, too. About 90 percent of the disease in hogs comes from infected chickens.

Dr. Belding lists these stept to help in the control work:

1. Provide separate lots for your swine and poultry.

2. Raise the pullets on a clean range away from the hens.

3. Clean and disinfect laying houses after selling the old flock and before moving pullets into them this fall. He advises that cresol be used to disinfect houses and equipment where a diagnosis of tuberculosis has been made.

POLITICS:

GOP Seeks Unity

The one thing it did not have in 1948 and the one thing it seeks most in 1952 is the one thing the Republican party seems most unlikely to find—and that is unity.

IT is characteristic of the American voter that when things are going fairly smooth at home, there is little disposition to change administrations. The long tenure of the Republicans and the even longer tenure of the Democrats with Roosevelt and Truman point up that fact.

Therefore, if the GOP failed to attain unity in the 1952 presidential race, how could the party ever hope to win? There was an outside chance that, under a unified campaign, the party might win in '52. That chanc_ lies in the fact that a lot of Republicans have been voting with the Democrats simply because they were at odds with their own party's candidate and fed up with the "me, too" policies of twice-contender Thomas E. Dewey.

BUT the chance for any real harmony within the party was slim. This was indicated by the bitter split in factions when Guy George Gabrielson of New Jersey was selected to replace Hugh D. Scott, Jr., of Pennsylvania, as the party's national chairman.

The changeover served merely to stir up new party turmoil and to pose the more immediate problem of unity in the congressional races now just 15 months away. Whether Gabrielson can bring this about is, of course, wholly conjectural; but it should be remembered that if the GOP would not run hitched together when the White House was the desired destination, there is little reason to expect them to hold tight in congressional contests.

GHOST STORY:

Boy Is 'Haunted'

Because of the myriad uncertainties which beset his existence, man always has been fascinated by the macabre, the supernatural, the weird beliefs and stories concerning ghosts and spiritual manifestations.

THIS is evidenced by the fact that the prominent part played by spirits of the dead in the lives of the living has been recounted and extolled since the days of the most ancient tribal existence.

And through most of the scoffing which greets such tales in this enlightened century there runs — if the truth were ascertainable — a tiny thread of credulity. It's rather like the old classic remark of the man who said that while he didn't believe in ghosts, he certainly had no desire to encounter one.

So the story of the Washington, D. C. boy "haunted" by "midnight manifestations" would bring the same scoffing, elicit the same secret thought, however fleeting, the same hidden wonder: "Could it be so?"

A local clergyman said it was so. This pastor told the Society for Parapsychology that he had the boy spend a night at his home. The minister said that during the night the bed on which the boy slept shook so violently he could not sleep. The boy moved to a heavy chair. The pastor said that while he stood over the chair it fell over, throwing the lad on the floor. The minister then put some bedding on the floor, told the boy to lie on it. Soon after the boy fell asleep, the minister saw the bedding and the boy slide slowly across the floor and under the bed.

Shakespeare said there are more things 'twixt heaven and earth than are dreamed of in our philosophy.

Beauty Abroad

Bebe Shopp, American's 18-year old first lady of beauty, is shown leaving the Savoy hotel in London for a tour of the British capital. A tour of London, Paris and Rome was a part of her prizes as winner in the "Miss America" contest of 1948.

BABIES:

May Sleep More

Parents who pace the floor with their infants during the night hours can now look with hope to a new research project at the University of Chicago. Scientists there are engaged in a study of the sleeping habits of babies.

These gentlemen will seek to learn what part diet plays in the slumber habits of babies through test feedings of proteins and especially-prepared meats.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

If They're Wild, They Belong To Tik!

Saw Tik Anderson last week and was reminded of the first time I ever spoke to him. The missus had sent me out one Saturday afternoon to hunt for some blackberries.

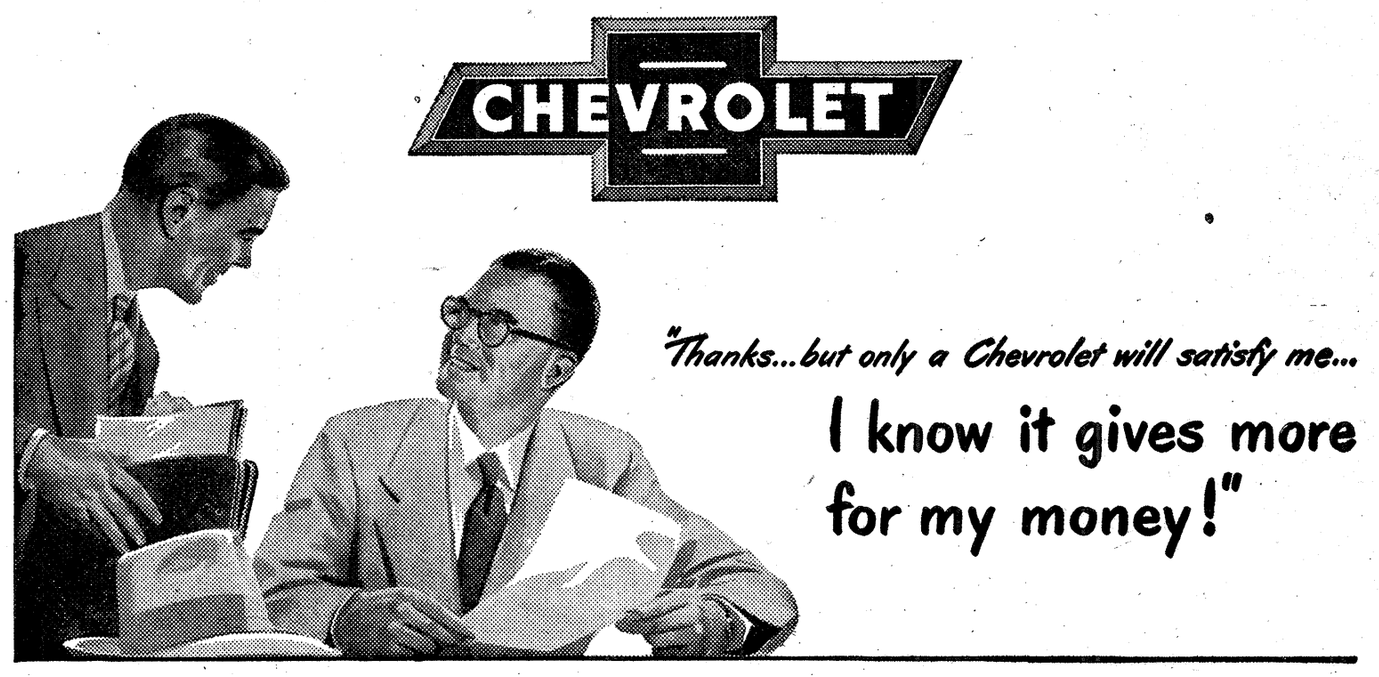

I took a long hike and couldn't find any. Finally, I came to Tik's house along that low stretch east of the fork on River Road. "Hi there," I says, "any blackberries around here?"

Tik says, "There used to be—but I don't know much about things that grow wild." Later, I found how Tik supports his family by picking berries. Ever since, I've been like the rest of folks in town—respectful of his right not to tell where "his" berries grow.

From where I sit, respecting other folks' rights comes natural in our town . . . in America for that matter! Whether it's a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer or ale, or whether it's Tik Anderson's right to keep secret where his berries are, it's all a big part of a real democracy!

"Who needs Plans to put in a furnace?"

Joe: "You, my friend! As a Lennox dealer, I'm horrified to see a homemade job like this! Are you gettin' any heat?"

Al: "Frankly, too much. And my fuel bills are terrific!"

Joe: "Doesn't surprise me! When I put in a Lennox Heating System, I make sure it supplies the right amount of heat in the right places . . . economically, too!"

Al: "How so, Mr. Authority?"

Joe: "I install pipes carefully, locate registers and heat controls so you're sure of having the right room temperatures everywhere."

Al: "Well, tell me—would a Lennox, ah, break me?"

Joe: "Man, it would save you! Lennox systems are reasonable, whether you use gas, oil, or coal. They're planned and put in right to give years of trouble-free, economical heating. Want an estimate?"

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

By DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Psalms 19:7-14; 105; 119. DEVOTIONAL READING: Proverbs 2:1-9.

God's Map for Me

Lesson for August 28, 1949

HOW did the writers of the Bible think about the Bible? We can get part of the answer by looking at our Psalms for this week. These poets already possessed a part of our Bible: the Law, some historical books, perhaps some of the Prophets. It was an incomplete Bible they had—but they loved it.

They did not think of it or use it in some of the mistaken ways you may find some people thinking of the Bible today. They did not think it was enough to read a line or two before going to bed every night. They did not think that having a copy of it around would bring good luck, or scare off demons. They said nothing about the Bible's being great literature. They were not at all bothered by miracle stories in Scripture; they believed them, and took them as evidences of the mighty power of God (see Psalm 105). They did not look on the Bible as chiefly a dictionary of Don'ts. They did not think of it as a Sabbath book, but rather as an everyday one. It did not strike them as a book of mystery.

Dr. Foreman

The Psalmists' Bible

IN reading Psalm 19:7-14, it is interesting to see how many different things the Psalmist says about the Word of God. He calls it by various names, but that is only because, being a poet, he likes to use several words for the same thing. As for Psalm 105, where else but in his Bible would the poet have learned that story of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph and the deliverance from Egypt?

The reader of this Psalm will observe that the subject of most of the sentences is GOD. As the poet reviews his people's history, he shows that it is not simply the doings of the Israelites, but it is God who brings things to pass.

"Man proposes but God disposes" is a proverb which the writer of Psalm 105 would approve. Psalm 119 is known as an "alphabetic" or "acrostic" poem. It is divided into 22 sections, each one exactly eight verses long. There are 22 letters in the Hebrew alphabet, and in the Hebrew original of this Psalm each verse of the first section begins with the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet, Aleph; in the next section, Beth, and so on down to the last letter. Tau.

The Book of God

WHAT the writers of these Psalms said about the partly-done Bible of their times is of course even more true of the completed Bible which is our heritage as Christians. One thing they make clear is that this is first of all God's book. They knew as well as we do that different human minds had a part of it, but for all that it is always God whose message comes through what they wrote. The Bible, properly understood, reveals the mind of God and the will of God. The Bible reveals also the doings of God. His story is the weaving of God's eternal decrees on the looms of time. Again, these poets see that the Bible is for man and about man.

None of them thought of it as a guide to heaven, but rather as a road map or to guide us through the mazes of this world. Psalm 119 stresses this world. and no other, as the world on which God's light shines.

The commandments of God are so many lengths of barbed wire to fence us in, rather road-signs to guide us on life's open highway. The Bible presents the "How" of living. It is God's map for me.

The Bible in The Heart

THE SENTENCE: "Thy word have I hid in my heart" (Psalm 119:11) is the clue to the right use of the Bible. When a Hebrew writer says "heart" he means something more than mere emotion. The word means character, what a man really is. A young Korean was learning the Sermon on the Mount, but making slow work of it.

When a missionary asked him about it, the boy said, "I have to be slow. First I learn a verse, then I go out and live it. I can learn the words in a few minutes; but it takes longer than that to live it."

That is the right idea. One verse, translated into living, is worth more than a chapter that never gets deeper in than the edge of the brain.

Open Gates Lead To Cattle Bloat

A gate left open so that cows can get in a corn field is an invitation to trouble, warns Dr. B. J. Killham, Michigan State College veterinarian.

Severe losses occurr because of bloat or inpaction when cattle get into corn fields. Clover or alfalfa pastures are dangerous at certain times after it rains.

Keeping close watch over the herd will help avoid bloat trouble. Cattle to be placed on clover or alfalfa pastures for the first time should first be given all the hay they will eat, then turned out into the pasture after rain and dew have evaporated. About a half-hour is long enough for cattle to graze the first few times.

In case symptons of bloat or impaction appear, no time should be lost in summoning the aid of a veterinarian, Dr. Killham advises.

HOMEMAKING FILLERS

Electric cleaners can be used on your rug from the very first moment it's laid on your floor and should be used frequently. Dirt from frequently traveled areas should be removed before it has a chance to work down into the carpet.

Wool carpets tend to increase in size slightly as the humidity rises. If a carpet or rug is to be attached to the floor it must be laid under tension, particularly if the weather is dry at the time. Otherwise it will expand when the weather becomes damp and the puckers will appear.

Scratches on dark woods may be colored by rubbing them with one of the following: commercial scratch remover, oil stain, or rotten-stone and linseed oil, advise extension specialists at Michigan State College.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Congress Beats Off ERP Fund Cut; Russia Winning Cold War in East; Personal Incomes Rise in Nation

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

SALUTE TO ISTANBUL . . . The U. S. sixth task fleet arrived in Istanbul recently for a five-day visit. One of the ships, the USS Fargo, a cruiser and flagship of the group, is shown firing a salute to Istanbul city. In middle background can be seen the aircraft carrier Coral Sea.

ERP FUND:
5.75 Billions More

The European recovery program appeared set for another year. The senate, by a vote of 63 to 7, voted a 5.75 billion dollar appropriation to take care of European recovery needs and pay U. S. occupation costs abroad. Final action came after two weeks of debate.

THE SENATE voted a full 12-month program, with no authority of the spending agency to expend the money in a shorter period. At the same time, it approved an outlay of $344,000 for a congressional watchdog committee to keep a check on foreign spending.

The upper chamber of congress gave tacit approval to nationalization of industries—in England, that is—by knocking down an amendment which would have withheld recovery funds from any nation which in the future nationalized an industry. This was aimed directly at Great Britain.

The bill provided:

One hundred and fifty million dollars for ECA loans to Europe.

A billion, 740 million dollars for ECA's May-June operations.

NINE HUNDRED MILLION for army occupation costs in Germany, Austria, Japan and the Ryuku islands.

Forty-five billion for Greece and Turkey.

In its struggle with the bill, the senate beat off efforts to earmark 500 million dollars for a loan to Spain and to require the ECA and the army to earmark two billion dollars for surplus U. S. farm products.

CHINA:
Lost Cause

Accusations, name-calling, recrimination did nothing to distort the picture—if the United States was winning the cold war in the West, she was losing it in the East.

The United State's "white paper" on what had happened in China and why charged vigorously that Communist victory over the Chinese and the disintegration of the Nationalist government were all the fault of Nationalist Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

SAID DEAN ACHESON, U. S. secretary of state: "Full blame for the ominous result of the Chinese civil war accrues to Chiang Kai-shek and other Nationalist leaders because they lost no battle as the result of a lack of American aid."

In obvious contrast to the firm policy in dealing with Russia on problems affecting the West, Acheson said of China's future and U. S. aims in that direction: "Future U. S. policy must concentrate on relieving China of the Moscow-inspired foreign yoke of Communism."

That appeared easier said than done, however. There was no pact and no arms program to warn off the Reds, and, anyway, the Communists were on the ground and in control. Even the most optimistic among the diplomats in Washington would realize that throwing the Communists out of China would be a long, hard fight.

A FORMER AMBASSADOR to China, Major Pat Hurley, was quick to charge that the state department's "white paper" was nothing but an alibi for U.S. failure to stem the Communist tide in China.

Radio Jam

According to reliable reports, Moscow's jamming of radio programs has tuned down the "Voice of America" to a mere whisper of its former self.

THESE REPORTS declare that Russian interference with programs beamed to the Soviet has been so effective as to cut to 10 per cent the American broadcasts which now permeate the region around Moscow.

Two official American protests against these jamming tactics were made last year, but in each case Moscow disclaimed any knowledge of such interference.

The Kremlin aim is obvious. Russian leaders are making every effort to isolate the Soviet people more completely from the west. Reception of American-originated broadcasts would have no place in that objective.

U.S. INCOMES:
Higher Than Ever

The status of consumer buying power in the nation was good. In fact, personal incomes, which are the mainspring of such buying, increased in June, according to reports of the federal department of commerce.

THE RISE helped push incomes for the first six months of 1949 to a level 2.6 per cent higher than the first half of boom-time 1948.

The report estimated that the flow of personal income from all sources reached an annual rate of 213.5 billion dollars in June. The commerce department's study showed the upturn had been continuing for three months, April through June, and that the gain accelerated as it continued.

An increase in farm income was cited by the department as the main cause of the June increase in personal income, as compared with that of May.

THE DEPARTMENT regarded as more significant, however, the fact that factory payrolls were credited with a slight increase in June after having declined steadily since last September.

COMIC BOOKS:
New Approach

The impact of so-called "comic books" on juvenile minds and their influence for good or evil has recently been a subject of widespread controversy in these United States. Some municipalities banned sale of the more objectionable books, others contented themselves with talking; but San Diego, it appears, has come up with a most sensible approach.

That southern California city has started what it calls a "comic book of the month club." It's purpose is to "put the fun back into funny books," from whence it has been conspicuously absent all these years.

The movement was launched after many San Diego families became disturbed about the subject matter of many of the comic books.

THE project depends upon cooperation of the comic-book publishers. If that can be obtained, publishers would submit the books to a board of review in advance of publication. Books that were approved would be mailed to club subscribers, who would be divided into different age groups.

'JOHN BULL' IRKED

British Resent Policy Criticism in U.S.

Word from London was to the effect that the British are no little perturbed at the mounting criticism in the United States of England's recovery efforts. Official British sources said they believed many of the complaints are based on lack of knowledge of Britain's problems and achievements since the end of World War II.

The British were rather perceptive in partial interpretation of the cause of criticism here. Some informants expressed the belief much of it may stem from dislike of President Truman's overall economic policy, and added this may be the reason Britain has become the object of attack by Republicans and others who seek to pile up political capital in America by continuing to criticize the British.

DIRECTIONS GIVEN FOR PRESERVING SWEET CORN

Corn that is at the right stage for eating is best for preserving according to foods specialists at Michigan State College. Kernels will be fully formed and the milk thin and sweet.

Corn should be of top quality and should be preserved immediately after gathering. It is best to harvest the corn early in the morning. If you plan to freeze it, husk, silk and trim the ears and avoid submerging corn in water as much as possible.

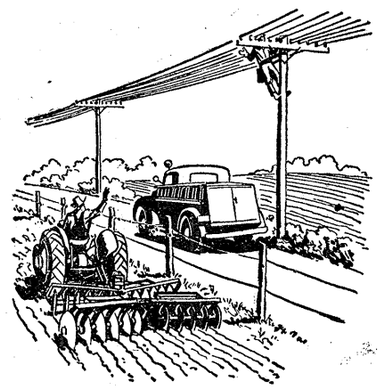

Scald the corn on the cob for 3 to 5 minutes in boiling water. Cool quickly, cut from the cob and pack. If you plan to freeze it on the cob, scald 8 to 10 minutes, depending on the size of the cob. Cool quickly and pack.

If you plan to can the corn cream style, cut the corn from the cob at about the center of the kernel and scrape the cobs. To each quart of corn, add 1 pint of boiling water. Heat to boiling. Pack hot to 1 inch of top of pint glass jars. Add ½ teaspoon to each jar. Adjust jar lids. Process in pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure for 85 minutes.

If you plan to can the corn as whole-kernal corn, cut it from the cob at about two-thirds the depth of kernal. To each quart of corn add 1 pint boiling water. Heat to boiling. Pack corn to 1 inch of top of jars. Cover with hot cooking liquid, leaving 1 inch space at top or fill to 1 inch of top with mixture of corn and liquid. Use ½ teaspoon salt for pints and 1 teaspoon for quarts. Process in pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure 55 minutes for pints or 85 minutes for quarts.

Set jars from the canner right side up to cool, on a rack or thick cloth or paper, away from drafts. The next day tilt jars to test for leaks advises Roberta Hershey, foods specialist at Michigan State College.

Rural Tele-news

BIG BUSINESS—Farmers in Michigan produce over $400,000,000 worth of crops a year. In producing this bumper crop, the farmer depends a lot on tools, such as plows, harrows, tractors. Another tool, and one of the most helpful, is the telephone. It runs errands, locates farm help, takes orders, helps meet emergencies. The number of farms with telephones in Michigan Bell territory has nearly doubled since before the war.

TOP IN TAX—Michigan Bell is the biggest single contributor by taxes to the State Primary School Fund. This year Michigan Bell will pay $5,291,826 in State property taxes. That's equal to $3.65 for each school pupil in Michigan. So part of what you pay Michigan Bell for telephone service helps educate the children around you—making them finer, more useful citizens of tomorrow.

HOW NEAR ARE YOUR NEIGHBORS?—Your friends may live one, two or more miles away, and yet they're as close to you as next-door neighbors by telephone. Without leaving home you can visit with them regularly, exchange bits of news, ask for or offer help in case of illness, plan parties or church affairs. Considering how little it costs and how much it can do for you, one of today's greatest values is the telephone.
